

JOB DESCRIPTION

Job title:	Sessional Schools Trainer
Responsible to:	Head of Education Service/Practice Manager
Location:	PAC-UK, London
Additional information:	Interview date 6 July Closing date 23 June Training date 17 July

Purpose of job:

To deliver a training package to primary and secondary schools across London

Key tasks and responsibilities:

- To deliver after school, half day and whole day training and consultation to school staff regarding the impact of attachment difficulties, trauma and loss
- To provide advice, information and support to school staff regarding strategies and interventions to support children with histories of trauma and loss, including adopted children
- To liaise with the Education Team based in London to ensure consistency of content and delivery
- To contribute as appropriate to the development of the training materials and package
- To participate in PAC-UK's professional and user training programme
- To adhere to PAC-UK's Statement of Purpose, mission and values and work in accordance with all PAC-UK's policies and procedures
- To adhere to and champion PAC-UK's commitment to Equal Opportunities throughout all aspects of the work

Sessional Schools Trainer – Terms & Conditions

Salary: Full day training - £225
Half day training - £150 (including 1.5hr, 2hr and 3 hr sessions)
(Plus expenses, travel time not included)

Working hours: As and when required

To apply: Please complete the PAC-UK application form on the website
<http://www.pac-uk.org/about/vacancies/>

PAC-UK's Equal Opportunities Policy and Procedures are on the Vacancies page of the PAC-UK website, and are part of the terms of employment.