

PAC-UK Education Service Designated Teachers Training

The role of the designated person in school for previously looked after children

www.pac-uk.org/education

Overview

This interactive training will support Designated Teachers with their extended remit for previously looked after children and will focus on the following areas:

- Early relationships and their ongoing effects
- Trauma and loss and their enduring impact
- Strategies to support and incl. children affected by attachment difficulties, trauma and loss
- Pupil Premium Plus funding and spending it wisely

Who should attend

The school's designated person for previously looked after children and any other individuals who will be supporting with this role.

Benefits of attending

You will have the opportunity to find out more about:

- The Children and Social Work Act 2017 and the role of the Designated Person within this
- Why previously looked after children have been given this additional provision
- Example of good practice with Pupil Premium Plus

The trainer

PAC-UK's Education Service draws from a range of expertise including education, developmental psychology, psychotherapy and neuroscience. We deliver specialist training and consultations to education and social care professionals, adoptive parents and special guardians.

How to book

Visit the Education Service page on the PAC-UK website www.pac-uk.org/education and make a provisional booking via our Commissioned Training online booking form. This training can be booked as a half day training (£557 plus VAT and travel) or full day training (£798 plus VAT and travel). For further enquiries please contact Lisa O'Callaghan by emailing lisao@pac-uk.org

About PAC-UK

PAC-UK is the country's largest independent Adoption Support Agency. PAC-UK's specialist Education Service offers a range of services to enable schools, parents and guardians and education and social care professionals to meet the needs of children who have experienced difficult starts in life.

PAC-UK was rated Outstanding by Ofsted in 2017, and was selected as overall winner in the King's Fund/GSK Impact Awards 2017, for 'Supporting Excellence in Community Health Care'.

