

Training event for social workers and other professionals working in permanency

One more makes a whole lot more! Adding a sibling to an adoptive family

Who should attend

Social workers and other professionals working in permanency

Trainer

Joan Hunt is an independent Social Work Trainer Consultant who works with Child Care and partner agencies to provide a professional Training and Consultancy that reflects up to date theory, practice and legislation. She has delivered training to international audiences and education, health and legal professionals.

Joan draws heavily from her professional and personal experiences as a former BAAF Trainer Consultant, Social Worker, Adoption Social Worker, Panel Chair, Disruption Chair, Parent and foster carer and applies this to her training with a strong focus on the Childs Lived Experience.

This half-day training day is for professionals who are considering placing a child into families that already has one, or more, adopted children.

The training will help you to think about the challenges involved in adding a sibling to an adoptive family, and how these challenges can translate into your assessment and post-placement support of second time adopters and their children.
